

SPORTS COURTS RULES AND REGULATIONS

- Wear appropriate footwear and clothing for the activity you are participating in including closed toe sports shoes. NO HIGH HEELS.
- When all three tennis courts are in use, limit your accumulated court usage to one hour.
- No glass to be taken onto the courts
- Tennis Rackets, tennis balls and basketballs are available at the Q Fitness Wellbeing Centre for the use of members tenants and other visitors. Be aware that only members who have performed an induction may access the Wellbeing Centre outside of supervised hours. Non members are advised to bring their own equipment outside of these times.
- Be mindful of and courteous to other users- for example turn phones to silent if people are playing tennis. Refrain from foul language.
- Watch out for balls from other courts.
- Only play when the courts are free from surface water
- QV1 Conduct policies also apply to the Sports Courts
- The sports courts must be utilised in line with current government health guidelines. These guidelines are subject to change without notice.
- No smoking on the sports courts.
- All tenants and their visitors can access the sports courts anytime with their own equipment via the garden. However, if you are not a wellbeing centre member, you will be required to complete a informed consent form.
- Please contact security on 08 9344 4284 for emergencies or email security@qv1.com.au as required.
- In the event of an emergency please call 000 if you cannot reach security

DISCLAIMER AND INFORMED CONSENT

All persons entering the sports courts do so at their own risk and with full knowledge of and in recognition of the possibility of injury to themselves or other dangers. This includes the participation in any sporting activities including but not limited to ball and racket sports and any form of physical activity.

Entrance to the sports courts facilities is permitted on the basis that the owners of this building, their servants or agents shall not in any circumstances, be liable for any losses (whether direct or indirect) of, injuries to, death of, or damage to or loss of property of, any person obtaining entrance or access to the sports courts, howsoever caused.

- All obligations, liabilities and responsibilities whatsoever, including but not limited to, contractual, statutory, tort irrespective of negligence, wilful act or default of owners, their servants or agents whether in whole or in part, implied or otherwise, are excluded.

DECLARATION (ALL SPORTS COURT USERS TO SIGN)

I declare that I have read and agree to all of the terms and conditions in this agreement.

Signed Electronically (Enter name here) Date

Note: The electronic signature Agreement shall be as valid as an original signature and shall be effective to bind the signatory to this Agreement.

CONTACT

For more information please contact
qfitness@qv1.com.au